Legends of the Lake

LIMITED DOC SERIES • VERTICAL-FIRST • 16:9 READY

A limited docu-series celebrating the icons, daredevils, innovators, and lifers who built the world of water skiing - from barefoot and slalom to jump, trick, show skiing, and beyond.

Born on Lake Pepin in 1922 when Ralph Samuelson first proved you could ski across water, the sport evolved into one of America's most thrilling but under-celebrated action cultures.

Shot vertical-first for social audiences and also captured in traditional 16x9, Legends of the Lake is designed to re-energize existing enthusiasts while introducing new audiences to the danger, craft, charm, and obsession behind the sport.

First episode: Lance Renfrow - competitor, senior judge, Hall of Fame Award of Distinction honoree, former Tommy Bartlett and Cypress Gardens ski show performer, and early designer of a private ski lake in Newberry Springs, California.
